ORDER

Before the court are multiple motions regarding the briefing schedule in Petitioner Alfanco Dexter Britton's 28 U.S.C. § 2255 motion, in which he raised claims of ineffective assistance of counsel. ECF No. 583. In its previous order, the court allowed the Federal Public Defender to represent Britton generally on the claims raised in his § 2255 motion, permitted the Federal Public Defender to file supplemental briefing on or before August 22, 2016, and ordered the United States to file a response on or before September 23, 2016. ECF No. 654.

The United States asks that this case be stayed pending resolution of Beckles v. United States, No. 15-8544. ECF No. 655. Petitioner asked that he be given until July 28, 2016 to respond to the United States' motion to stay. ECF No. 656. Petitioner now asks that the court grant an extension allowing counsel to file supplemental materials in support of Britton's motion under 28 U.S.C § 2255 on or before November 18, 2016.

The United States' motion to stay, ECF No. 655, is DENIED. Petitioner's motion that he be given until July 28, 2016 to respond to the motion to stay, ECF No. 656, is MOOT. Petitioner's motion that he have until November 18, 2016 to file supplemental briefing is GRANTED in part. Counsel for petitioner is ORDERED to file any supplemental briefing on or before October 14, 2016. The United State is ORDERED to file a response on or before November 15, 2016.

It is so ORDERED.
